DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 30, 2009 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claim 41 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st and 6th paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. “a means for producing a visible change of....” and “a means for observing said visible change.....” are critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976). There is no clear description in the specification that recites what such means are.

3. Claims 6, 8, 10- 18, 41 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 6 and 12, it is vague and indefinite as to whether the thermochromatic material in the base claims further comprises a liquid crystal material, or is it an alternative thermochromatic material? Applicant is required to show support from the specification if a liquid crystal material is comprised in the thermochromatic material along with the leucodye or N-isopropylacrylamide. If the liquid crystal material is an alternative of the thermochromatic material, applicant is required to cancel the claims since thermochromatic material comprised of liquid crystal material is taught by the Parker reference (col 5 L 23).

In claim 8, in the last line, "the single layer" is indefinite and believed to be an error.

In claims 10-18 and 41-42, applicant uses the phrase "thermochromatic layer" and "thermochromatic material" interchangeably. Applicant is required to be consistently throughout.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the above rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st, 2nd and 6th paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
